

SHB30516 CERTIFICATE III IN BARBERING

Apprenticeship

QUALIFICATION OVERVIEW

National Course Code/Title: SHB30516 Certificate III in Barbering

Qualification Description: This qualification reflects the role of barbers who use a range of well-developed sales, consultation and technical skills and knowledge to provide a broad range of barbering services to clients. They use discretion and judgement to provide client services and take responsibility for the outcomes of their own work.

This qualification provides a pathway to work as a barber in any industry environment, usually a barber shop or salon.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.

Entry Requirements: There are no entry requirements for this qualification.

Course Delivery/Time Frame: Prior to enrolment, you will have entered into a Training Contract with your employer through your Australian Apprenticeship Network Provider. This outlines both your and your employer's obligations in relation to your training. This will also identify The Barber Academy as your Supervising Registered Training Organisation (SRTO).

Your employer will show you the ropes and help you progress through your apprenticeship, pay your wages, and train you with the support of The Barber Academy.

Apprenticeships are up to 3 years (Full-time) or 6 years (Part-time) for students with no prior experience. The qualification is competency-based so can be completed as soon as you are able to meet the requirements of your course. SATs cannot complete more than 33.3% of their qualification while in school.

At The Barber Academy, the theory aspect is completed online, with access to trainers for assistance via email or phone. The practical training is completed at the barbershop or can be arranged to have training in the academy.

FEES & SUBSIDIES

Program User Choice

The User Choice program provides a public funding contribution towards the cost of training and assessment for eligible Queensland apprentices and trainees.

The program provides the flexibility for apprentices, trainees and their employers to select a preferred training provider (registered training organisation or RTO) from a list of Skills Assure suppliers (SAS) for the delivery of accredited training to meet their specific needs. SAS are training providers who have contract with the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training to deliver funded training.

Prior to enrolment, you will have entered into a Training Contract with your employer through your Australian Apprenticeship Network Provider. This outlines both you and your employers' obligations in relation to your training. This will also identify The Hair Academy as your Supervising Registered Training Organisation (SRTTO). Your employer will show you the ropes and help you progress through your apprenticeship, pay your wages and train you with the support of The Barber Academy.

User Choice Program - Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for a government contribution towards the costs of training, an apprentice or trainee must have entered into a training contract for a qualification that is funded by the department and be registered in the department's registration system DELTA. The contract commencement date or recommencement date must be on or after 1 July 2010, and the training provider selected to deliver the training must hold a SAS status for the nominated qualification.

User Choice Program - Restrictions

Apprentices and trainees can only receive one government contribution for a User Choice funded qualification at any single point in time, i.e., a student is not funded to undertake two apprenticeships or traineeships at the same time.

In addition, apprentices, and trainees, including SATs, can only receive a maximum of two government funding contributions under the current User Choice program. There are other rules specifically related to funding for SATs, so students and their parents/guardians should discuss their intentions with their school's vocational education and training coordinator prior to signing up as a SAT. Australian Apprenticeship Support Network providers are another good source of information.

User Choice Program - Fees Payable

User Choice Policy stipulates that RTO's are obliged to collect a Student Contribution Fee which is calculated at $1.60 per nominal hour for each unit of competency delivered. The total fee will vary according to the range of units selected however are approximate: $1,688 (Payment Plan: Deposit $249 then $40 per month for 36 months) Applies for students 25 years plus. *Partial exemptions apply where the apprentice is under 17 years, holds a Health Care or Pension Concession Card or is Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

Full exemptions may apply where the apprentice is School-Based or is under 25, employed as an apprentice or trainee under a training contract in one of the 139 priority or traineeship qualifications You must commence, or be undertaking, your training between 1 January 2021 and 31 December 2024, or where payment would result in financial hardship. Textbook fees: $150.00 or digital textbook $65.00.

User Choice Program - Refunds

Where subsidies training is not completed, a proportion of the co-contribution When Subsidies training is not completed a proportion of the fee - corresponding to the number of unfinished units will be refunded upon request.
